- 6) TAG (Talented and Gifted program)
Rate and level professional development.
What is the TAG mandate:
"School districts shall identify and provide programs or services."
Talented and gifted students are those children who require special educational programs or services beyond those normally provided.
Students have scored between 97% and 99%; and can be identified through parent / teacher collaboration.
There are multiple identification tests.
Rate and level of learning are tools for teachers:
Rate is measure of pace.

Level is learning the curriculum.

Growth mindset is some terminology used to off-set some stereotypes.

TAG population is growing (~ 10 - ~ 20).

TAG committee has been formed and will include parents.

Saturday Academy would be a partnership for grades 3 – 5; will be focused on the science (8 week class from 2:30 – 4:00).
